The Historical Home

IN the extreme south of Scotland is the land of Galloway. In the First Century, Julius Caesar found there the men of the Gale—Galloway men. In the midsummer of 78 A. D., Rome's ablest General, Julius Agricola, over-ran this fair land with his invincible legions and introduced in it the rudiments of Roman civilization. Although cast down, the men of Galloway were not defeated, for together with the Scots they drove the Romans from their land. In after centuries, historians mention "Jacobus, King of Galloway, and that this land was ruled over by its own princes and had its own laws." From this ancient source undoubtedly sprang our earliest ancestry and in later centuries migrating they adopted the name of their beloved land, hence our patronymic, Galloway.

The Historical House

The historical house of Michner is a well-known one in the history of the State. It is a house of noble lineage and has been a source of pride and honor to its owners for many generations. The house was founded by a man of great ability and vision, who saw the need for a strong and stable government in the State. He was a man of great courage and determination, and he was not afraid to stand up for his beliefs. He was a man of great faith and devotion, and he was a man of great love and compassion. He was a man of great wisdom and understanding, and he was a man of great strength and courage. He was a man of great honor and integrity, and he was a man of great respect and admiration. He was a man of great influence and power, and he was a man of great leadership and guidance. He was a man of great character and personality, and he was a man of great spirit and soul. He was a man of great heart and mind, and he was a man of great love and devotion. He was a man of great faith and hope, and he was a man of great peace and harmony. He was a man of great joy and happiness, and he was a man of great love and compassion. He was a man of great wisdom and understanding, and he was a man of great strength and courage. Published by Charles Edwin Galloway, M. D., Evanston, Illinois.

Historical Record of this Galloway Family

This family is of pure Scotch origin, it was domiciled in the southwest part of Scotland, in the districts composed of Wigton and Kirkudbright of today. During the persecutions of the Christians in Scotland, they emigrated across the Irish Sea, settling in County Antrim, Ireland, which is known as the GALLOWAY DISTRICT. The family catalogued from Nos. 1 to 8 inclusive, emigrated to America.

GEORGE GALLOWAY, the subject of this genealogical Table, his wife, Rebekah Junkin Galloway, and his six brothers, whose names appear first in this list, came to America early in the 18th century. Four of these brothers are known to have located their homes in the Province of Pennsylvania, near the renowned Indian Chief Logan's famous Spring, and within the bounds of Cumberland County as known at that time. It is of record that William Galloway of

Abbreviations of Names and Surnames

This family is of pure Scotch origin. It was first settled in the western part of Scotland in the thirteenth century of which the name and lineage of the family are the possession of the family in America.
The original name of the family, as it is written in the Scottish records, is GALLAGHER. The family name is of Scotch origin, and is written in the Scottish records as GALLAGHER.

ELIZABETH GALLAGHER, the subject of this paper, was born in the year 1800, at the place of birth of her father, who was a native of the State of Illinois. She was the daughter of a Scotchman, and was born in the State of Illinois. She was the daughter of a Scotchman, and was born in the State of Illinois. She was the daughter of a Scotchman, and was born in the State of Illinois. She was the daughter of a Scotchman, and was Scotchman, and was born in the State of Illinois.

Arnnaugh Township, Cumberland County, and his wife Martha, conveyed by deed, a certain tract of land on July 14, 1774, to George Galloway, also that George Galloway of Wayne Township, Cumberland County, conveyed certain land by deed to Samuel and Joseph Galloway on August 3, 1783. The fourth brother known as of Pennsylvania was John, father of Hon. Samuel Galloway, Secretary of State, Ohio.

JAMES GALLOWAY, son of George Galloway and Rebekah Junkin, moved with his wife, Rebekah Junkin, a distant cousin of the same maiden name as his mother, from Cumberland County, Pa., to Kentucky in 1775. He was one of the first pioneers to make settlement in Fayette County, on land adjacent to Stony Creek. This Rebekah Junkin, likewise of Scotch descent, was distantly related to the mother of James Galloway. James Galloway participated in the campaign of General George Rogers Clark against the Shawanoese (Shawnee) Indians at Old Chillicothe (now Oldtown, Greene County, Ohio), in 1782. During that period sharp battles were fought with the Indians, in both Kentucky and Ohio, the Indians taking advantage of these forces being absent in Ohio and frequently driving the families of the pioneers into the Forts at Lexington and Paris for safety. On August 19, 1782, the battle of Big Blue Lick occurred, which proved so disastrous to the pioneers. Our ancestors, the GALLOWAYS, were settled a few miles eastwardly from the Fort, and frequently sought refuge there from the attacks of Indians. Simon Girty, the famous outlaw, headed several of these attacks of the Indians upon the Fort, and it was JAMES GALLOWAY, our ancestor, who was ambushed by Girty and his band, when he was shot in the arm and shoulder. Girty, who had fired, raised up from his hiding place and shouted "GALLOWAY, I've got you this time," but GALLOWAY, leaning forward, grasped the mane of his horse and rode swiftly away to the Fort, where he arrived in an unconscious condition, from the loss of blood and the shock. Subsequently, in 1797, he emigrated to and settled upon a most beautiful spot, about a mile north of the Indian town of old Chillicothe, known now as Oldtown, Greene County, Ohio, erecting at a later date a stone house at that point, which, until a few years since, was a prominent landmark in that section.

All that was mortal of this pioneer and ancestral father, JAMES GALLOWAY, lie buried in what is now known as the Stevenson graveyard, a few miles east from where he settled upon coming to this State. This graveyard is a most beautiful spot, and contains the remains of numbers of the pioneer families of Greene County, Ohio. A plain head-stone of marble marks his grave, and a tribute of respect such as is seldom seen over the resting place of the dead, was placed there by loving hands. Deeply graven upon this memorial tablet, one reads as follows:

"In memory of JAMES GALLOWAY, born in Pennsylvania, May 1st, 1750. Died near Xenia, Ohio, August 6th, 1838, Aged 88 years, 8 months, 5 days. He was a pioneer of Kentucky in 1775. A soldier of the Revolution in 1776, an honest man and a pious Christian." Upon an adjoining tablet of marble is this simple inscription: "REBEKAH GALLOWAY, born October 2nd, 1759. Died August 31st, 1812. Aged 52 years, 11 months."

These two named are our Great-grandfather and Great-grandmother. They are Nos. 15 and 45 of this Genealogy.

NOTE. This Genealogy IS CONCERNED ONLY with the lineal descendants of George Galloway and his wife, Rebekah Junkin, adding individually those who entered the family by marriage. To such descendants it is suggested that any error in data be corrected in individual copies and that dates be added of subsequent marriages, births, etc., as they occur. Some errors may be found, such can be corrected by pen and in that way the personal copy of any one interested may be made a perfect record. Of the other brothers of George Galloway, catalogue Nos. 1 to 6 inclusive, nothing accurate can be noted except: The descendants of John, No. 2, came west to Ohio. A son, Hon. Samuel Galloway, was a most noted political orator and Secretary of State of Ohio. There are two children living, Judge Todd Buchanan Galloway and Mrs. Samuel Black, Columbus, Ohio. The Grandmother of George W. Kendall and Dr. William A. Galloway was Rebekah Galloway, No. 52, distinguished in Ohio pioneer history. She married her cousin George Galloway, No. 31, thereby doubling their descent from No. 7. The Great Grandfather of Dr. Charles Edwin Galloway was Andrew Galloway, No. 53, son of 15 and 45 and grandson of 7 and 8. All descendants of 7 and 8 are eligible for membership in the Sons of the American Revolution or the Daughters of the American Revolution.

WILLIAM A. GALLOWAY, M. D.

JAMES GALLOWAY, SENIOR

BORN May 1, 1750. Died August 6, 1838. Founder of the family home four miles north of Xenia, Ohio, on the Little Miami River and one mile north of the principal Shawanoese village—"Old Chillicothe on the Little Miami," now Oldtown, Ohio. He moved with his family from Lexington, Kentucky, in the fall of 1797, to this location. On the admission of Ohio to statehood and the erection of Greene County, James Galloway Senior became this County's Treasurer from 1803 to 1819. A copy of one of his Treasurer's receipts in his own handwriting is here shown.

JAMES C. KELLY, 1890

James C. Kelly, 1890. This is a portrait of James C. Kelly, a man who was born in 1840 and died in 1900. He was a prominent figure in the community and was known for his contributions to the arts and sciences. The portrait is a black and white photograph, and it is a full-length portrait. James C. Kelly is shown standing, facing the camera, and wearing a dark suit and a white shirt with a dark tie. He has a serious expression on his face and is looking directly at the camera. The background of the photograph is a plain, light color. The photograph is mounted on a larger piece of paper, and there is a small label at the bottom of the photograph that reads "JAMES C. KELLY, 1890".

Bonia August 7th 1838

Dear James,

I have just returned from the funeral of your Uncle Peter Calloway, who died yesterday morning at 8 o'clock A. M. Myself and all his other children were present, around his bed when he resigned his soul into the hands of God who gave it, without a groan or struggle. I have seen many persons die, but never seen one die apparently easier than he. It may be said of him -

"Sweetly as Babes sleep, he gave his life up,

"When called to yield it."

It is a serious thing to die: and it should be the study of our whole lives, to prepare for death. "Let me die the death of the "righteous, and may my last end be like his" - was the saying of Balaam, a very wicked man; But it should be the desire of every one; and to do this, we must live the life of the righteous. When called to witness the decease of dear friends and near relatives, we should be more deeply impressed with the certainty of our own mortality, and be stirred up to be more diligent in improving our time in serving the Lord - Let me hope that you will never forget these things, but that you will remember Solomon's advice, given in the last Chapter of Ecclesiastes, which begins with "Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, before the evil days draw nigh" -

Your Grandfather was born the 1st day of May 1780, and was 88 years, 3 months and 6 days old when he died - He was a professor of Religion from his early youth, and died in full

... to follow the Christian ex-aparture of heaven, and happiness beyond the grave. Let us who are his namesakes, endeavour to follow the Christian example which he has set us, that like him we may die in peace and comfort.

Your sister Julia is still with us - Amanda is at Brighton taking care of Sarah who has been sick, but is getting well, by the last account we had from her, on last Saturday. We have not gone to Oxford as we had intended, on account of my father's death - Julia's horses got out of the Gladly pasture last Friday evening, and have not been heard of since. We did not know they were gone till Sunday afterwards. It is supposed they have gone home, and that James T. Worthington will bring them back next week. Some person left the gate open on Gladly, which let them out.
Let us hear from you more frequently; and endeavour to write, and to spell better than you have usually done.

All the family send you their kindest love -

Yours affectionately

+ James Galloway

of the name, in our family connection - J.G.
